

ORIGIN

Transformation Programmes For African & African-Caribbean Young Men

the programme

ORIGIN is a 1-year 'Coming-into-Manhood' African-centred rites of passage programme that provides Personal Development and Community Guidance for young men 13-17 years of African descent.

Personal Development. A variety of Workshops and Personal Challenges carefully designed to tackle the real issues facing young men and their communities.

Community Guidance. We aim to match all the young men with a Mentor/Coach of the same-gender and cultural background who provide one-to-one advice and support for an agreed period.

We work closely with families to support the young men in their transition to adulthood.

3-way learning

The ORIGIN TEAM, the Young Man, and a responsible adult such as a Family Member or Agency Representative agree a Learning Contract. This outlines the requirements for all involved.

1. The ORIGIN TEAM agree to deliver the programme.
2. The Young Men agree to commit to the programme, work positively with others and be prepared to receive support.
3. Family Members agree to support and reinforce the programme from home.

The ORIGIN TEAM interview all the young men referred to the project and inform the applicants whether they have been successful in gaining a place. Places are limited and awarded against set criteria.
